

Effective Change for Culturally and Linguistically Diverse Learners

This session built on the research of Dr. Almitra Berry and will cover utilizing sound research to evaluate core curriculum as well as using the RTI process to close the achievement gap. Educators will review methods for diagnosing problems, tackling challenges along the way, progress monitoring, and relying on data to progress students forward.